PETITIONING THE COURT

To modify the conditions of supervision as follows:

- 17 The defendant shall reside in and participate in the program of an inpatient drug treatment center, as directed by the probation officer, for a period not to exceed 120 days.

CAUSE

On September 22, 2011, Mr. Johnson was released from the Bureau of Prisons after serving his 120 month prison sentence. Since his release, Mr. Johnson has been residing in Hermiston, Oregon in the District of Oregon.

On November 29, 2011, Mr. Johnson submitted a urine sample that tested positive for the use of methamphetamine. He has since failed to attend treatment on two occasions and has admitted to using prescription painkiller for which he has no prescription. Mr. Johnson has also agreed to add the special condition to his supervision that he participate in an inpatient drug treatment program, as directed by the probation officer, for a period not to exceed 120 days.

Please see attached signed waiver by Mr. Johnson agreeing to the modification of his supervised release conditions for the Court's review.

Upon the Court's approval of the modified condition as noted above, the District of Oregon has also requested transfer of jurisdiction. This transfer will allow future necessary Court actions be held in their district. Should Your Honor concur with this request, the appropriate documents are attached.
